

From its fledgling days in 1991 as an enthusiastic group of lawyer/musicians, the Advocats Big Band has become one of the most popular big bands performing in Toronto. The band's current personnel features 17 top flight musicians whose individual professional experience ranges from studio, film, theatre and television work to major symphony orchestra, chamber music and night clubs. Whether performing on the Big Band Stage of the Beaches International Jazz Festival, The Old Mill, The Rex Hotel or at its monthly home, The Duke Live, the Advocats Big Band never fails to please its audience with a widely appealing repertoire of Jazz, Swing and Latin music.

Check out our newest album
All I Want for Christmas is...Swing!

Available for purchase as a CD or Download Card or online as a Digital Download

"Family and friends of mine have been following the big band Advocats and their outstanding lead singer Nina Richmond for many happy years. We always come away from their concerts with that feel-good glow generated by an evening of great old standards and modern, uplifting hits. Hey, even the young kids get a kick out of their orchestrations and have been seen heading for the dance floor. Can't wait till the next gig."

- G.H.

contact@advocatsbigband.com

www.advocatsbigband.com